

RELEASENew Zealand Energy Corp announces 2022 Quarter 4 Results

28 April 2023– Wellington, New Zealand - New Zealand Energy Corp. ("NZEC" or the "Company") (TSX-V: NZ) announced today it has filed with Canadian regulatory authorities its Q4 2022 consolidated financial results and an accompanying management discussion and analysis report, which documents are available on the Company's website at www.newzealandenergy.com and on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

Commenting on the Company's 2022 end of year results, Chairman James Willis said "The results saw a profit of $1,840,340 (compared to the 2020 loss of $993,008) which included an impairment reversal of $1,915,902 and significant non-cash expenses including depreciation and depletion. Overall, there was a $57,952 increase in cash at year end and $527,611 was held as at 31 December 2022. Cash provided by operating activities was $720,088, compared to 2021 when ($198,130) of cash was used by operations.

The Company achieved average net daily production of 81 boe/d (88% oil) through 2022 compared to 99 boe/d (88% oil) during 2021.

With respect to development operations, Mr Willis commented: "Tariki is a focus. The Company is progressing discussions to enable gas storage at the Tariki field.

Regarding Waihapa/Ngaere, gas lifting with the compressor will re-commence after a plant refurbishment, to be followed by tie-in of the Northern Ngaere wells. The Company is investigating the utilization of these licences for carbon sequestration.

Regarding the CAD$2,000,000 Convertible Loan Agreement with Arizona Finance Limited, the term of this Agreement has been extended to July 20, 2024

FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION AND CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING RESERVE ESTIMATES

This document, the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2022 and the Management's Discussion and Analysis contain certain forward-looking information, forward-looking statements ("forward-looking statements"). The reader's attention is specifically drawn to the qualifications, disclosure and cautionary statements in these documents regarding forward-looking statements and reserve and resource estimates.

The Company notes that such forward-looking statements are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties, some of which are beyond NZEC's control, the impact of general economic conditions, industry conditions, volatility of commodity prices, currency fluctuations, imprecision of reserve estimates, environmental risks, operational risks in exploration and development, competition from other industry participants, the lack of availability of qualified personnel or management, stock market volatility and the ability to access sufficient capital from internal and external sources. Although the Company believes that the expectations in its forward-looking statements are reasonable, they are based on factors and assumptions concerning future events which may prove to be inaccurate. Those factors and assumptions are based upon currently available information. Such statements are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that could influence actual results or events and cause actual results or events to differ materially from those stated, anticipated or implied in the forward looking information.

As such, readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the forward looking information, as no assurance can be provided as to future results, levels of activity or achievements. All forward-looking statements are made as of the date of this document or the date of the documents referenced above, except as required by applicable law, the Company does not undertake any obligation to publicly update or to revise any of the forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
