Auctus Initiates Coverage of New Zealand Energy Corp.

17 June 2024- Vancouver, BC – New Zealand Energy Corp. ("NZEC" or the "Company") (TSX-V: NZ) is pleased to announce that Auctus Advisors LLP ("Auctus"), the Company's UK capital markets advisor, has initiated equity research coverage of the Company. A copy of the report is available from Auctus' website at www.auctusadvisors.co.uk. The report assesses the potential of the upcoming Tariki-5 well and the Company's gas storage project and the potential impact they could have on the share price. For further details, including the target share price, net asset value, assumptions and risk analysis, please review the entire posted report.

The Company confirms that the rig for the drilling of Tariki-5 well has been identified and final contract details are being agreed to. All long-lead items for the drilling of the well have been secured. The target spud date is 23 August 2024, with drilling to a depth of 2,837m to take approximately 25-30 days with results expected in the third week of September.

With the gas supply shortages in New Zealand, gas prices are at an all-time high with spot prices more than NZD15 per GJ (C$11 per mcf).

Forward-Looking Information: This news release contains "forward-looking information" within the meaning of applicable Canadian securities legislation. All statements, other than statements of historical fact, included herein are forward-looking information. In particular, this news release contains forward-looking information regarding: the business of the Company, including future plans and objectives. There can be no assurance that such forward-looking information will prove to be accurate, and actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such forward-looking information. This forward-looking information reflects NZEC's current beliefs and is based on information currently available to NZEC and on assumptions NZEC believes are reasonable. These assumptions include, but are not limited to: NZEC's current and initial understanding and analysis of its projects and the development required for such projects; the costs of NZEC's projects; NZEC's general and administrative costs remaining constant; and the market acceptance of NZEC's business strategy. Forward-looking information is subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause the actual results, level of activity, performance or achievements of NZEC to be materially different from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking information. Such risks and other factors may include, but are not limited to: general business, economic, competitive, political and social uncertainties; industry condition; volatility of commodity prices; imprecision of reserve estimates; environmental risks; operational risks in exploration and development; general capital market conditions and market prices for securities; delay or failure to receive board or regulatory approvals; the actual results of future operations; competition; changes in legislation, including environmental legislation, affecting NZEC; the timing and availability of external financing on acceptable terms; and lack of qualified, skilled labour or loss of key individuals. A description of additional risk factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from forward-looking information can be found in NZEC's disclosure documents on the SEDAR+ website at www.sedarplus.ca. Although NZEC has attempted to identify important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in forward-looking information, there may be other factors that cause results not to be as anticipated, estimated or intended. Readers are cautioned that the foregoing list of factors is not exhaustive. Readers are further cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking information as there can be no assurance that the plans, intentions or expectations upon which they are placed will occur. Forward-looking information contained in this news release is expressly qualified by this cautionary statement. The forward-looking information contained in this news release represents the expectations of NZEC as of the date of this news release and, accordingly, is subject to change after such date. However, NZEC expressly disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking information, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as expressly required by applicable securities law.
